

Medina Grand Treasury Adelaide Awarded Best Serviced Apartment Property at 2008 HM Awards!

Medina Grand Treasury Adelaide has taken out the award for Best Serviced Apartment Property at the 2008 HM Awards held at the Crystal Palace, Luna Park, Sydney on Thursday 14 August 2008.

The HM Magazine Awards are presented annually to showcase outstanding achievements within the hospitality and tourism industry across Australia, New Zealand and some South Pacific countries.

Medina Grand Adelaide offers spacious and stylish apartment accommodation right in the hub of Adelaide. The heritage listed hotel has maintained many of the original 19th Century architectural features and was the recipient of this award in 2005 and again in 2007 amongst a host of other prestigious awards.

Vibe Hotel Rushcutters, Sydney, which is also under the Toga Hospitality umbrella, took out the Best Property 4.5 Stars & Under, a well-deserving win for the popular property that's set in an excellent urban location with consistently polished service. Toga Hospitality established the four star full service Vibe Hotel brand in 2003 and currently have six hotels located in Sydney, Melbourne and the Gold Coast. The brand new Vibe Hotel Darwin is set to open in early 2009.

According to Rachel Argaman, CEO of Toga Hospitality, “We are thrilled to once again be recognized for our team’s contributions to the industry, by the industry. The awards are testament to our team’s continued commitment to the consistency of our product and also the strength in our brands.”
