Medina Grand Perth

One of Condé Nast Traveler's HOT new hotels for 2005

US Condé Nast Traveler's 'Global Hot List' has been published – and Medina Grand Perth has been declared one of the hottest new hotels in the world for 2005.

US Condé Nast Traveler states that the Medina Grand Perth is “a welcome departure from the sob-inducing sameness of most big city hotels: chic, high ceiling suites and studio apartments with private laundry facilities and well-equipped kitchens that, thanks to the Medina's Metro Bar and Bistro, you can happily ignore.”

As one of the world's leading authorities on travel, Condé Nast Traveler's 9th Annual May Hot List features 116 new hotels and resorts around the world whose design, service and sense of place transcend industry standards.

With the Condé Nast Traveler motto being “Truth in Travel”, the magazine's editorial staff sifted through the sea of hotels and resorts that opened in the past year, and called upon a global network of editors and field reporters to visit each property - incognito. The result is reviews which represent travel the way consumers experience it, with reporting that is fair and honest. The Hot List is their pick of the best of what is new.

Medina Grand Perth opened its doors in June 2004. With interiors designed by Sydney designer George Freedman, Medina Grand Perth features 138 one and two bedroom apartments and studio rooms, and it combines the convenience of apartment space with hotel facilities. Since its opening, Medina Grand has established itself as the benchmark for deluxe accommodation in Perth.
